"A CASE IN EQUITY"—see third page—a good story.

THERE are only ten prisoners in the Paris jail at present.

THE infant child of Mr. and Mrs. Volney Ferguson is dangerously ill.

KENTUCKY distilleries may not begin bottling whiskey under the new law until August. The stamps will not be ready before that date.

THE "Old Maids Convention," to have been given on the eve of July 16, at Mt. Carmel Church, has been postponed till Friday July 23, at 8 o'clock p. m., sun time.

CHAS. E. WITTMAN, photographer formerly of this city, was arrested in Cincinnati Thursday for assaulting A. E. Burkhardt. His trial will occur tomorrow.

JUNE JOHNSON, who shot and killed Jeff Harris about three weeks ago, was brought before Judge Howard for his examining trial and was held over for trial by the Circuit Court. The murderer and the victim are both colored.

THE Bourbon Ramblers invite all the local wheelmen to join them in a ride to Richmond, Sunday. The start will be from the Court-house at five a. m.; breakfast at Lexington; dinner at Richmond; supper at home. Distance, eighty miles round-trip. Good roads.

MR. BRINK RENICK and wife have moved into Mrs. Mary Turney's residence on Duncan avenue, and Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Montgomery and Miss Emma Scott have moved into the Remington residence on the same avenue, which they recently purchased.

THE press room of THE BOURBON NEWS office was a busy place last week. Besides printing the two issues of THE NEWS, the Reporter was printed Wednesday night and the Kentuckian Citizen Friday night. Our neighbors experienced a break in their machinery.

WORKMEN have begun the erection of two rooms to be added to the third story of Odd Fellows Hall. The rooms will be used to store properties and paraphernalia and the rooms in the front of the building now used for that purpose will be used as reception rooms.

THOS. F. ROCHE, JR., met with a painful accident Sunday morning while riding on the Midland Ice Company's wagon. The horses started suddenly and he was thrown under the wagon, a wheel passing over one of his limbs. The limb was seriously hurt but not broken.

THE sack of clothing found at the pump house at the Maysville bridge in this city by Officer Hill, belonged to Clayton Bros. of Farmer, Ky. It was stolen from their store several months ago by two tramps who were captured here by Chief of Police Wilson, of Mt. Sterling. The men are now serving a term in the penitentiary for the crime.

THERE is displayed this week in A. J. Winters & Co.'s show window a fine photo of the Beta Chapter of the Phi Chi Fraternity of the Kentucky School of Medicine, at Louisville. Messrs. Ben Frank, Llewellyn Spears and John Sweeney, of this city, are members of the chapter. The Society won six out of seven medals offered by the college last year.

Chickens Poisoned.

SEVERAL persons living on Walker's Hill have recently had a hundred chickens to die from poison, and a farmer living just beyond the city limits has lost about fifty from the same cause. The matter should be investigated as great danger may result from it. Persons convicted of scattering poison may be punished by a heavy penalty.

Bourbon Cattle Bought.

YESTERDAY W. B. Kidd, of Winchester, agent for Lehman Bros., bought thirty-eight 1,300-lb. cattle from Lloyd Ashurst, at $4.25 per cwt, and thirty-four 1,450-lb. cattle from Henry Butler at $4.35. Last week he bought forty-one from Joe Penn, nineteen from Wm. Stipp, 123 from Root, Ferguson, fifty from Vol Ferguson, and twenty-nine from Mrs. Maggie Waller. They weighed between 1,300 and 1,550 lbs. and cost from $4 to $4.50. Mr. Kidd yesterday received from Jas. Thompson eighty 1,325 lb. cattle at $4.50, and thirty-eight 1,237-lb., at $4; and seventeen 1,320-lb cattle at $4.50, and five 1,120-lb. at $4, from Sam'l Bedford, and shipped same over the L. & N. to New York. The Ferguson cattle will be shipped to-day. Mr. Kidd has recently bought 473 export cattle in this county.

"A CASE IN EQUITY"—see third page—a good story.

School News.

THE Colored Institute will be held the first week of August, beginning on Monday, at the colored graded school building, in this city, with T. Augustus Reid as conductor. Colored teachers from counties where no colored Institute will be held are invited to be present. Fee, one dollar.

The Institute for whites will be held the fourth week of August, continuing six days, with three conductors. Fine program. Fee, two dollars. More particular information later.

Examinations for whites will be held July 16th and 17th, at the court house, in this city, opening at 8:30 a. m.

The Pike Question.

COL. W. W. BALDWIN will come to Paris to-day to make a proposition regarding the sale of the Maysville and Lexington turnpike to the Bourbon Fiscal Court. If the Court and Col. Baldwin cannot come to satisfactory terms the County will at once file suit to condemn the road.

The Fayette Fiscal Court will purchase the five and one-half miles of the Harrodsburg and Lexington pike lying in Fayette, for $10,000.

All the turnpikes of Mercer county will probably be freed within a month. The roads will be leased.

Cool Weather Promised.

THE weather predictions last night gave promise of pleasant weather continuing for several days. The drop in the temperature Friday night was a welcome relief to humanity and saved hundreds of lives. There has not been any serious results yet reported in Paris from the heat.

A heavy rain fell at Louisville Saturday, flooding cellars and doing much damage. A dozen houses were struck by lightning but no person was killed.

Among the deaths from heat reported Saturday were fourteen at St. Louis, eight at Chicago, three at Pittsburg, two at Utica, N. Y., seven at Cincinnati, and one at Newport, Ky.

A New Postal Law.

Hereafter senders of registered letters will be indemnified against loss to the extent of $10. The law provides that no greater sum than $10 can be allowed on any one letter and claimants must show that letter contained $10 in order to recover that amount. The government has never before been responsible for registered letters, though employees in whose hands losses occurred were in many cases required to make good losses.

English In Trouble.

A DISPATCH from Myers to the Leader states that George English, formerly of this county, was Saturday arrested near Carlisle, charged with robbing Mrs. David Scott's house. The stolen goods were found secreted in the L. & N. tunnel at Pleasant Valley. The dispatch says that English had a complete outfit of burglar's tools in his possession when arrested.

WHEEL NOTES.
